

Beginning your graduate studies

Please fill out this section if you are applying for your FIRST year of graduate studies.

23. Program of study *

24. Name of Institution *

25. Location of Institution *

26. Have you been officially accepted to this program? * Select only one.

- Yes (If yes, please provide a copy of your letter of acceptance with your printed application materials)
- No

27. If you have not yet been officially accepted into this program, please indicate when you expect to receive confirmation.

Continuing your graduate studies

Please fill out this section if you are currently a graduate student applying for your next year of study in your program.

28. Program of study *

29. Institution *

30. Location of Institution *

31. Name of supervisor (if applicable)

Research and Scholarship Goals

32. Please describe the focus of your research. *

33. Please describe how you perceive this aligning with Clean Foundation's mission and/or goals. *

34. What are your plans upon graduation? *

35. If you are the recipient of this scholarship, you agree to contribute 10 volunteer hours to a Nova Scotia-based non-profit, non-governmental organization that is dedicated to environmental stewardship on a mutually agreeable schedule during the course of the scholarship (generally, one academic year). * Select only one.

- Yes, I agree.
- No, I do not agree.
- Other: _____

36. Please provide the name, email address, and telephone number for your first reference (academic or work-related).

37. Please provide the name, email address, and telephone number for your second reference (academic or work-related).

Thank you for applying. To complete your application, submit this completed form, along with:

- A project plan (no more than 2 pages) detailing the research goals and/or objectives, methodologies to be used in achieving goals, and a project timeline with specific tasks to be completed;
- A curriculum vitae that includes details of your research experience, volunteer work, environmental and community involvement, and any academic awards and/or publications.

These materials may be submitted via email to communications@clean.ns.ca, or in hard copy by post to:

Clean Foundation attn: scholarship
126 Portland Street
Dartmouth, NS B2Y 1H8

The application deadline is February 1st, 2018. After the application period closes, we will review all complete applications and select finalists. Please note that finalists may be asked to submit academic transcripts and/or written references. The winner will be notified by early April.